

Important information:

This notification form and any other documents relating to the exercise of Warrants as described above do not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy or subscribe for the securities of the Company in any manner or in any jurisdiction where such offer would be illegal. No action has been taken, or will be taken, to permit an offer to be made to the public in any jurisdiction.

The securities have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or with any other securities regulatory authority in any state or jurisdiction of the United States, and may not be offered, sold, resold, transferred, delivered or distributed, directly or indirectly, in, into or within the United States, except in a transaction not subject to, or pursuant to an exemption from, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and in compliance with the securities legislation in the relevant state or any other jurisdiction of the United States.

Any subscription, exercise or purchase in violation of the above restrictions will be considered invalid.

Carnegie handles administrative information in relation to the exercise of warrants. Carnegie's receipt and handling of application forms does not lead to a customer relationship between the applicant and Carnegie. This means among other things that neither a so called customer categorisation nor a so called suitability assessment will be made.

Personal data that is submitted to Carnegie, for example contact information and personal identification number, or which is otherwise registered in connection with the preparation or administration of the offer, is processed by Carnegie, as controller of the personal data, for the administration and execution of the offer. Processing of personal data also takes place to enable Carnegie to comply with its statutory duties.

Personal data may for a defined purpose, in observance of bank secrecy rules, occasionally be disclosed to other companies within the Carnegie Group or to undertakings which co-operate with Carnegie, within and outside the EU/EEA in accordance with EU's approved and appropriate protective measures. In certain cases Carnegie is also under a statutory duty to provide information, e.g. to the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority and Swedish Tax Agency.

Similarly to the Securities Market Act, the Banking and Financing Business Act contains confidentiality provisions according to which all of Carnegie's employees are bound by a duty of confidentiality with regard to clients of Carnegie and other parties to whom services are provided. The duty of confidentiality also applies between and within the various companies in the Carnegie Group.

Information regarding what personal data is processed by Carnegie, deletion of personal data, limitation on the processing of personal data, data portability or the rectification of personal data can be requested from Carnegie's Data Protection Officer. It is also possible to contact the data protection officer to obtain further information about how Carnegie processes personal data. If the investor wishes to make a complaint regarding Carnegie's processing of personal data, the investor is entitled to turn to the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection in its capacity as supervisory authority. Personal data shall be deleted if it is no longer needed for the purposes for which it was originally collected or otherwise processed, provided that Carnegie has no legal obligation to preserve the personal data. The normal storage time for personal data is 11 years.

Address to Carnegie's data protection officer: dpo@carnegie.se